::JUDGMENT::

Per G.S. SINGHVI, CJ

This appeal is directed against order dated 29.07.2005 passed by the learned Single Judge in Writ Petition No.836 of 2005 whereby he directed the non-petitioners (appellants herein) to register the documents presented by the writ petitioners (respondents herein).

At the hearing of the appeal, Shri G. Rama Rao, learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioners made a statement that after passing of the order under challenge by the learned Single Judge, the State Government issued notification under Section 22 A of the Registration Act, 1908 as amended by Andhra Pradesh Act No.4 of 1999 and his clients have challenged the same in Writ Petition No.512 of 2006. He submitted that in view of this development, his clients may be permitted to withdraw Writ Petition No.836 of 2005.

Learned Government Pleader for Revenue says that he does not have any objection, if the respondents are allowed to withdraw the writ petition.

In view of the above, we accept the request of Shri G. Rama Rao and grant leave to the respondents to withdraw Writ Petition No.836 of 2005 and dismiss the same as withdrawn.

As a consequence of dismissal of the writ petition as withdrawn, order dated 29.07.2005 passed by the learned Single Judge, which is under challenge in this appeal, shall automatically become ineffective and inoperative.

With the above observations, the appeal is disposed of as infructuous.
